1,441 ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS IN MACEDONIA -- Nova Makedonija, No 1610, 10 Mar 50

At present, Macedonia has 1,441 elementary schools with 144,471 students and 2,486 teachers, 98 seven-year schools with 13,431 students, 15 intermediate technical schools with 4,710 students, and 31 complete and incomplete [i.e., 4-year and 8-year?] gymnasiums with 20,899 students.

Skoplje University and the universities of other republics are attended by 2,430 Macedonian students. Over 95 percent of these students have government scholarships, which amount to 60 million dinars this year. At present, there are 823 students' mess halls, in which 67,000 elementary school students were fed during the past school year.

In Macedonia there are also 238 Albanian schools with 28,432 students and 133 Turkish schools with 13,205 students.

SET UP FEDERAL SCHOOLS FOR DIRECTORS -- Slovenski Porocevalec, No 87, 11 Apr 50

The Federal Ministry of Heavy Industry recently established a special school for economic executives in Zagreb.

The purpose of this school is to train directors for new heavy industry enterprises and to enable present directors to complete their technical education. In addition, prospective directors will be politically indoctrinated.

Josip Kotesic, director of the Sisak Ironworks, was appointed principal of the school. The school will be located in Berislaviceva Ulica in the building previously occupied by the school for apprentices of the "Rade Koncar" Factory. The school will begin its training program in April 1950 and will be attended by 45 high-ranking economic executives. The training of these directors will last from 6 to 8 months.
